Did you know that...

- ...ground was broken on 15 September 2009 for the new Carver Center scheduled for completion in April 2012? Participants included County Executive Jim Smith, Governor Martin O'Malley, and Carver's visionary principal, Mary Cary. Ms. Cary made remarks that spoke to Carver's history and especially to the tradition of excellence established by you, Carver's alumni.
- ...Carver Center is one of 5 national recipients of the John F Kennedy Center for the Performing Arts National Schools of Distinction in Arts Education Award?
- ...Jenn Book, '97, is the Dramaturg for The Inkwell, a theatre company in Washington, D.C. devoted to new play development?
- ...Matthew Cline, '00, appeared at The Hippodrome Theatre as Sasha and as the clarinet player in the current production of Fiddler on the Roof? Matt will also be presenting a Master Class at Carver.
- ...Andrea Harf, '02, is currently a Comprehensive Planner for Carroll County?

Principals Mary Cary, Karen Steele, and Joe Freed at the groundbreaking ceremony on 15 September 2009.

- ...Sarah Morhaim, 99, has a short film entitled "All Day All Night" that premiered at Sundance Film Festival 2009 and is now screening as part of AFI Fest at Mann Chinese Theatre in Hollywood?
